BYLAWS
of the
Korea Economic Institute of America

ARTICLE I.

Name

The name of the Corporation is the Korea Economic Institute of America.

ARTICLE II.

Purpose of the Institute

As set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, the Institute is formed to strengthen the foundations of Korea-American trade and economic relations through research, education, publication, public statements, conferences and such other activities as set by appropriate.

ARTICLE III.

Offices

The principal office of the Institute shall be in the District of Columbia. The Institute may also have offices at such other places both within and outside of the District of Columbia as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

ARTICLE IV.

Board of Directors

Section 1. General Powers. The Board of Directors of the Institute shall constitute its governing body. It shall manage, control, and direct the affairs and property of the Institute and shall have all powers necessary to carry out the purpose of the Institute under its Articles of Incorporation and the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act.

Section 2. Composition of the Board. (a) The members of the initial Board shall be those persons named as directors in the Articles of Incorporation. The Board shall consist of three (3) members. Directors for the subsequent term shall be elected in accordance with Section 3 at the annual meeting of the Board held immediately prior to expiration of the term of the directors and subject to approval by any contributor of fifty (50) percent or more of the Institute's budget for the previous calendar year. The term of the directors shall be two (2) years.

(b) Vacancies in the Board of Directors and any Board position to be filled by an increase in the number of directors may be filled at any meeting of the Board upon nomination and a vote of a majority of the members of the Board present at such meeting, subject to approval by any contributor of fifty (50) percent or more of the Institute's budget for the previous calendar year.

Section 3. Meetings of the Board

(a) The annual meeting of the Board shall be held within the first calendar quarter of each calendar year. Special meetings of the Board shall be called by the president or by any one director.

(b) A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board. Except as may be otherwise provided herein or in the Articles of Incorporation, all actions of the Board shall be taken by majority vote of the directors present and voting at a meeting.

(c) Any action which is required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or any committee of the Board may be taken without a meeting, provided that all members of the Board or Committee give written consent to the action taken.

(d) The minutes of the Board meeting shall be reported to KDI immediately after its conclusion.

ARTICLE V.

Officers

Section 1. The Officers of the Institute shall be a president, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as may be deemed necessary by the Board of Directors

Officers shall receive such salary as is fixed by the Board of Directors. The officers of president, secretary and treasurer shall be held by 3 different persons.

Section 2. All officers shall be appointed by a majority vote of the entire Board of Directors and may be removed with or without cause by a majority vote of the entire Board at any time. Any such removal shall be without prejudice to the contractual rights, if any, of the person so removed.

Section 3. The President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Institute, and, subject to the direction and control of the Board of Directors, shall perform all duties as Chief Executive Officer of the Institute, and have general supervision and control of all of the business and affairs of the Institute. He shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. He may sign, as authorized by the Board of Directors, contracts, leases, or other instruments or documents which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, and which are necessary to carry out the objectives of the Institute, except in cases where the signing and execution there of shall be delegated by the Board of Directors, by these Bylaws or by statute to some other officer or agent of the Institute.

Section 4. The Secretary. The Secretary shall be responsible for the keeping of an accurate record of all meetings of the Board of Directors, shall have custody of the corporate seal, shall see that all notices are duly given in accordance with these Bylaws or as required by law, and, in general, shall perform all duties customary to the office of Secretary.

Section 5. The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall perform all duties customary to that office, shall have custody of and be responsible for all corporate funds and securities, and shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements on the books of the corporation. He shall deposit or cause to be deposited all monies or other valuable effects in the name of the Institute in such depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI.

Finances

Section 1. Contributions shall be received for the work of the Institute on terms consistent with the Institute's purpose and policies adopted by the Board of Directors. The Institute shall enter into contracts setting forth the terms of such contributions with such a contributor or contributors from time to time.

Section 2. The funds of the Institute shall be deposited or kept with a bank or other suitable depository. Such funds shall be disbursed upon the order or orders of such officers as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII.

General Provisions

Section 1. Checks. All checks, drafts, or other orders for payment shall be signed by such an officer or officers or other persons as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 2. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Institute shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Auditing of Books. At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the President shall submit to each member of the Board a full Statement of the finances of the Institute.

ARTICLE VIII.

Amendments

These Bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed or new bylaws may be adopted by a vote of a majority of the total number of directors at any meeting of the Board called for that purpose, provided that no amendment may be made with respect to Article IV, Section 2, except with the approval of the contributor referred to therein.
